ARRESTS

On February 3, 2014, Corporal Corcoran responded to the Walmart in California, for two shoplifters in custody by loss prevention personnel. The investigation revealed Priscilla Lynn Bissett, 18, of Lexington Park and Emani Nicole Jackson, 18, of Lexington Park, had concealed items of merchandise in their handbags and left the store without paying. A subsequent search of Bissett's handbag revealed a burnt marijuana cigarette. Both suspects were placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. Jackson was charged with 2 counts of Theft Under $100 and Theft Scheme. Bissett was charged with 2 counts of Theft Under $100, Theft Scheme, and Possession Controlled Dangerous Substance – Marijuana.

On February 3, 2014, Deputy First Class Boyer conducted a vehicle stop for a traffic violation on Great Mills Road in the area Langley Road. The driver identified as Martell D Angelo Morgan, 26, of Piney Point, acted in a suspicious manner. A K9 scan of the vehicle was conducted at which time the K9 alerted on the vehicle. A folded dollar bill containing suspected crack cocaine was located under the center armrest. Morgan was placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. He was charged with Possession Controlled Dangerous Substance – Not Marijuana and Possession Paraphernalia. Morgan had just been released from the St. Mary's County Detention Center after being charged with 2nd Degree Assault stemming from a domestic situation which occurred on February 1, 2014 by Deputy Cole. Morgan was found to be in possession of an amount of suspected cocaine during a secondary search at the detention center. He was charged with 2nd Degree Assault, Possession Controlled Dangerous Substance – Not Marijuana, and Possession Contraband in Place of Confinement.

On February 3, 2014, Deputy Wesner responded to a residence on Othello Way in California for a reported assault. The victim alleged suspect Shannon Marie Leymeister, 24, of California, stabbed the victim with a fork during an argument. Deputy Wesner observed injuries on the victim consistent with the prongs of a fork. Leymeister was placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. She was charged with 2nd Degree Assault.

On February 4, 2014, Deputy Schultz responded to a residence on Cambridge Avenue in Lexington Park, for a domestic disturbance. Deputy Schultz met with the complainant outside of the residence, who reported suspect James William Justice Sr., 47, of Lexington Park, had locked the victim inside the residence. Just then suspect Justice exited the residence and made his way to the complainant in a threatening manner. Justice was detained by Deputy Schultz for safety reasons. He immediately began to curse loudly at deputies and others on the scene. Justice ignored all orders made by Deputy Schultz to stop. A crowd began to gather causing Deputy Schultz to call for more deputies to assist on the scene and delayed contact with the victim. Justice was placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. He was charged with Disorderly Conduct, Failure to Obey Lawful Order, and Obstructing/Hindering.

On February 3, 2014, Deputy Phelan responded to a residence in Chaptico, for a reported domestic assault. The victim alleged suspect Lorne Michael Hill, 43, of Chaptico, pushed the victim into the shower stall then strangled the victim with his hands. He then threw the victim to the floor and held the victim down. Deputy Phelan observed injuries on the victim's neck and upper body. Hill was placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. He was charged with 2nd Degree Assault.

On February 1, 2014, Deputy Potter responded to a residence on Prather Drive in Lexington Park for a reported intoxicated subject refusing to leave a party. On arrival, suspect Demetri Paul Brooks, 18, of Lexington Park, was outside yelling profanities and threatening the security personnel. He refused all orders made by Deputy Potter to stop yelling and leave the area. Brooks was placed under arrest and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention Center. During transport, Brooks discarded pills later identified as Oxycodone. He was charged with Disorderly Conduct, Failure to Obey Lawful Order, and Possession Controlled Dangerous Substance – Not Marijuana.

On February 2, 2014, Deputy Flerlage responded to the St. Mary's County Detention Center for a fight between 2 inmates. The investigation revealed suspect Jeffrey Keith Price, 36, of Mechanicsville, followed the victim into his cell and proceeded to push and kick the victim. However, the victim then recontacted Price and assaulted him with his hands. Price was charged with 2nd Degree Assault on DOC Employee (inmate) and the second inmate identified as Erik nmn Schroeter, 45, of Waldorf was charged with 2nd Degree Assault on DOC Employee (inmate).
