MEDIA RELEASE

Correctional Officer of the Quarter

The following officer was recognized as Correctional Officer of the Quarter for the First Quarter of 2009. Correctional Officer William G. Wood has proven himself to be a valuable member of the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office.

C/O Wood began his career as a correctional officer on December 7, 2007. He soon became a member of the Emergency Response Team and completed training on June 27, 2008. C/O Wood is reliable, punctual and career orientated. He voluntarily works overtime and is always willing to help no matter what the task. C/O Wood is passionate about his work and has organized central storage on numerous occasions while on midnight shift.

C/O Wood discovered hidden food items under a special diet tray during lunch. The intent was for the items to get placed into the Work Release Unit. This extra effort on C/O Wood's part prevented contraband from being introduced into the unit and caused an inmate to be violated and removed from the kitchen area. On another occasion, C/O Wood found matches and an empty box of cigarettes in the kitchen while conducting a search. There have been several incidents wherein because of C/O Wood's attention to detail he has assisted in preventing further violations to occur in the facility.

Major John D. Horne takes great pleasure in recognizing Correctional Officer William G. Wood as Correctional Officer of the First Quarter of 2009 for his dedication to the agency and the citizens of St. Mary's County.
