Sheriff Announces Graduation of Citizen Academy

Sheriff Timothy K. Cameron congratulates the graduates of the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office 13th Citizen Academy Class. The seven-week course ended on April 29, 2010. Participants included: Louise Barnes, Janice Bonham, Jennifer Buchness, Etta Campbell, Jim Chesley, Eric Davidson, Terry Davidson, Egon Frech, Maurice Gogul, Rose Jiménez, Daniel Kinkade, Joseph Owens, Martha Owens, and Donna Perrie.

The Sheriff's Office Citizen Academy is designed to give citizens an inside look into the Sheriff's Office day-to-day operation. Academy students learn exciting facts about the Sheriff's Office K-9 Unit, Emergency Services Team, Forensics/Crime Lab, Accreditation, Uniform Patrol, Administration, Bureau of Criminal Investigations, Training, Community Policing, and Corrections.

Anyone over the age of 18 interested in attending the Sheriff's Office Citizen Academy is welcome to apply. Applications are accepted for all future academies and can be downloaded online at <http://www.firstsheriff.com/docs/CitizenAcademyApplication.pdf>. Completed application forms should be mailed or hand delivered to the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office, Attention Citizen Academy at 23150 Leonard Hall Drive Leonardtown, Maryland 20650. Applications will be processed and applicants are contacted when the class is scheduled to begin.

Congratulations Graduates!
