MEDIA RELEASE

Correctional Officer of the Quarter

The following officer was recognized as Correctional Officer of the Quarter for the Fourth Quarter of 2008. Correctional Officer First Class Daniel L. Catlett has proven himself to be a valuable member of the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office.

On December 18, 2008, while on early shift, CFC Catlett was called to Post XII to escort an inmate to Post II for release. During the frisk search in preparation of the escort, CFC Catlett noticed the inmate had a fresh tattoo on his hand. Even though the inmate was being prepared for release CFC Catlett took the time to do extensive questioning with the inmate as to where and how the tattoo came about. As a result of the questioning, CFC Catlett had gotten the inmate to reveal the name of who was conducting the tattoos and how the tattoos were being done. Further investigation led to the detection of other inmates with new tattoos. Following up with unscheduled searches of inmate cells revealed items needed to conduct tattoos. Contraband was recovered and all inmates with fresh tattoos were seen by the medical department.

Sheriff Timothy K. Cameron takes great pleasure in recognizing Correctional Officer First Class Daniel L. Catlett as the Correctional Officer of the Fourth Quarter of 2008 for his dedication to the agency and the citizens of St. Mary's County.
