June 24, 2010

Deputy Sheriff of the 1st Quarter 2010

The following officer was recognized as Officer of the Quarter for the First Quarter of 2010.

Deputy First Class Sarah J. Russell is an exceptional officer and demonstrates efficiency in her daily assignments. She displays an eagerness to achieve and maintain a practical approach towards Domestic Violence issues. She strives to continuously make the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office a professional organization and her encouraging attitude serves to inspire those around her. Furthermore, Deputy First Class Russell naturally displays proficient qualities and can be entrusted to make good decisions even under adverse or demanding conditions. Despite her heavy workload, she makes herself available to assist other detectives with their cases and has taken the initiative to schedule and attend basic investigator training to further her knowledge in criminal investigations. She readily assists with the execution of search and seizure warrants and surveillance when requested. Her self-initiated drive has been demonstrated throughout her tenure as the Domestic Violence Coordinator within the Bureau of Criminal Investigations. She is beyond compare in her work ethic and has earned the respect and high regard of those who work with her. As such, superior officers, supervisors, and managers have placed her in a position of trust and responsibility that far exceeds that of an officer with equal experience.

Sheriff Timothy K. Cameron takes great pleasure in recognizing Deputy First Class Sarah J. Russell as the Deputy of the First Quarter of 2010 for her commitment to the agency and to the citizens of St. Mary's County.
