

MEDIA RELEASE

January 15, 2013

Homicide Suspect Sought

On January 14, 2012 a citizen observed a person matching the description of a suspect wanted by the Annapolis Police Department for Murder and Attempted Murder in the city of Annapolis entering a townhouse in the area of River Bay Town homes located in Lexington Park. A perimeter was established around the residence by police units and a search warrant obtained for the residence. The search warrant was executed by the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office Emergency Services Team however the suspect was not located. The suspect may still be in the Lexington Park area and should be considered armed and extremely dangerous.

Citizens with information regarding the whereabouts of Suspect Clarence Eugene Johnson 3rd, African American Male, 6'4", 240 pounds with multiple tattoos is asked to contact Crime solvers at 301-475-3333 or text a tip to "TIP239" plus your message to "CRIMES" (274637). Citizens may also contact Det. Bealefeld #4920 of the Annapolis Police Department at 410-268-9000 Ext. 7299 or by e-mail at cebealefeld@annapolis.gov.

