More Border-to-Border Driving While Intoxicated Saturation Patrols

In an ongoing effort to get drunk drivers off the roadways the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office, in cooperation with the Calvert County Sheriff's Office, will be conducting border-to-border driving while intoxicated saturation patrols from April 13, 2009 through April 19, 2009.

Driving While Intoxicated Saturation Patrols are set up to identify impaired drivers and are funded by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
