St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office Welcomes New Deputies

Sheriff Timothy K. Cameron and the men and women of the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office welcome six new deputies: Kenneth H. Flerlage, Ryan E. Kampf, Will N.M.N. Thompson, Brandon T. Foor, Glen D. Knott, and Cory M. Ellis.

On February 19, 2010, these deputies completed their twenty-eight weeks of police entrance level training and graduated the Southern Maryland Criminal Justice Academy. The graduation ceremony was held at Leonardtown High School. The graduating class was comprised of thirteen total graduates, six representing the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office. St. Mary's County Deputy Glen D. Knott was awarded the Marksmanship Award and St. Mary's County Deputy Will N.M.N. Thompson was awarded the Emergency Vehicle Operations Award. The graduating class demonstrated their commitment to their training and studies by graduating with an overall class academic grade point average of 95.25%.

Sheriff Cameron wishes the new deputies a long and prosperous law enforcement career.
