

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vice Narcotics detectives received information regarding an individual attempting to sell body armor on “Craigslist”. Detectives began an investigation and developed a possible suspect. The suspect, Sir Patrick Evans (Age 27 of California, Md.) was confirmed to be a felon and prohibited from possessing a bullet resistant vest. An undercover detective made contact with the suspect which led to the purchase and recovery of the vest and detectives are still working to find its point of origin. Suspect Evans was arrested and charged with being a felon in possession of the body armor and possessing the body armor without a permit . Additional charges are pending a review with the State’s Attorney’s Office.

The St. Mary’s County Sheriff’s Office Vice/Narcotics Division, with the assistance of the St. Mary’s County Sheriff’s Office Emergency Services Team, K-9 deputies, Support Team deputies and members of the Special Operations Division, conducted several operations related to the “Maximum Deployment Operation”.

A search and seizure warrant was executed on the home of Michael Hawthorne Woodland (Age 69 of Lexington Park) which led to the recovery of numerous “Oxycodone” pills. Suspect Woodland was arrested and additional charges are pending.

Detectives began an investigation into the use and sale of “oxycodone” by Suspect Jerry Allen Stone Sr. (Age 44 of Hollywood, Md.) A search warrant was obtained for his residence as well as his person. Suspect Stone was observed in what appeared to be a drug transaction and deputies stopped the vehicle he was traveling in to execute the search warrant on his person. Suspect Stone ingested the “oxycodone” as officers approached the vehicle. He was taken into custody and charged with “Operating a vehicle with a Revoked License”. During the time of the vehicle stop detectives were assisted by the Emergency Services Team in executing the warrant on his home. “Oxycodone” and related drug paraphernalia were recovered and he was charged accordingly.

Also in the vehicle was Kyle Matthew Hudson (Age 22 of Hollywood, Md.) and Jessica Louise Johnson (Age 23 of Hollywood, Md). Both of those suspects were charged with “Possession of Cocaine” and related paraphernalia.

Christopher Wayne Quade Jr. (Age 25 of Clements, Md.) was indicted after passing a false prescription and obtaining “Oxycodone”. Additional counts included “Conspiracy to Distribute” and “Possession with the Intent to Distribute”.

Robert Scott Slaughter (Age 42 of Mechanicsville) was charged with “Obtaining Oxycodone by Fraud”, “Altering a Prescription” and “Possession of Oxycodone”.

Deborah Marie Jackson (Age 29 of Lexington Park) was charged with “Possession of Heroin” and related paraphernalia as a result of a vehicle stop which occurred in Lusby, Maryland and charges filed by the Calvert County Sheriff’s Office.

Catherine Teresa Dean (Age 39 of Hollywood, Md.) was indicted for “Obtaining Hydrocodone by Fraud” and “Possessing Hydrocodone with the Intent to Distribute”. This investigation took place over several months and originally came to light after a training seminar that was attended by numerous local dentists. Suspect Dean has been conducting this “Doctor Shopping” scam since 2008 and obtained the prescriptions from more than 15 separate dentists. Several times she utilized her spouse’s information to avoid detection. Vice Narcotics detectives would like to thank all of the local dentists for their interest in the prescription medication abuse training and the outstanding partnership that we have.

Inquiries should be directed to Captain Daniel D. Alioto, Commander of Vice/Narcotics, at 301-475-4200 x1918.
