Identity Sought for Theft Suspects

LEONARDTOWN, MD (December 12, 2025) – The St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office is seeking to identify and locate the two suspects seen in these photos in connection with a suspected theft that occurred at The Dollar General in Ridge, MD.

On Sunday, November 2, 2025, the suspects entered the store, filled a shopping cart with multiple items, and the black male went to the register with only a few items. The white male left the store with the remaining items in the cart without paying.

The two suspects then left the area in a Nissan Versa with Virginia license plates; the vehicle was determined to be a rental, but they were not listed as the renters.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact Deputy Jacob Mills at 301-475-4200, ext. 8119, or by email at Jacob.Mills@stmaryscountymd.gov, referencing case # 2025-66530.
