Lexington Park Man Arrested for Open Warrant and CDS Possession

LEONARDTOWN, MD (June 5, 2024)— On Tuesday, June 4, 2024, Deputies from the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office apprehended Richard Allen Roloson, 65, of Lexington Park, while canvassing Great Mills Road for a suspect involved in a trespassing complaint. Roloson, who was also the subject of a separate complaint for panhandling and trespassing, was found hiding in the area.

Upon making contact with Roloson and confirming his identity, deputies discovered that he was wanted on an open warrant. During a subsequent search, deputies located suspected cocaine and paraphernalia on his person.

Roloson was arrested and transported to the Detention and Rehabilitation Center in Leonardtown. He has been charged with CDS Possession: Not Marijuana and CDS: Possession of Paraphernalia.
