St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office to Conduct Super Bowl Weekend Saturation Patrols

LEONARDTOWN, MD (February 5, 2026) - The St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office will conduct saturation patrols during the upcoming Super Bowl weekend to target impaired driving, speeding, and other dangerous traffic violations.

The increased enforcement initiative will place additional deputies on major travel routes and throughout communities across St. Mary's County during one of the year's busiest weekends for gatherings and celebrations. Deputies will be highly visible and proactive to prevent serious crashes and promote safe driving.

Before Super Bowl celebrations begin, drivers are encouraged to plan a sober ride home by designating a driver or arranging transportation.

To report a suspected impaired or dangerous driver, call 911 immediately. For non-emergency concerns, contact the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office at 301-475-8008.
